

PRESS RELEASE

Signature of the Charter for the AXA Group's global health and well-being program

Phase II “HEALTHY YOU PROGRAM”

On November 18, 2020, Thomas Buberl, CEO of AXA and Hedi ben Sedrine, secretary of the AXA Group's European Works Council, jointly signed a charter for the global health and well-being program for AXA Group employees.

At the EWC plenary session on 30 November 2021, Hedi ben Sedrine and Thomas Buberl co-signed for the phase II of this charter, which includes access to tele-medical consultations, digital prevention and health information programs and appropriate medical support in the event of serious illness for the 153,000 AXA employees worldwide.

The management of the AXA Group, which is committed to social dialogue, confirms, through the co-signature of this charter, that the European Works Council of the AXA Group is an important partner in the implementation of the Group's major social programs.

Hedi ben Sedrine, AXA European Works Council secretary has been an employee representative from AXA XL since 2002. As a group employee since 1992, he has been elected AXA EWC secretary by the 50 European delegates in 2018.

